

BALTIMORE EDITION
MONDAY
APRIL 14, 2008

The Examiner
BALTIMORE

examiner.com

AAI
TEXTRON Systems
IS HIRING!
See Our Ad in the Recruitment
Section!

ORIOLES
TROUBLES ON THE ROAD
The O's fall 6-2 to Tampa Bay's rookie hurler and finish their road swing with a 2-4 record » PAGE 44

ALL-EXAMINER SEASON'S LEADERS
Oakland Mills guard Miriam McKenzie, Mount Hebron coach Scott Robinson earn honors » PAGE 46, 47

BUSINESS: BRAC transfers take Charm City tour » PAGE 25

LAMBRECHT: Lacrosse trio jockey for position » PAGE 38

NIGHT OUT

Monday, April 14, 2008

FOOD

Houlihan's reintroduces Viva La Diva

Houlihan's Restaurants recently announced its annual Diva ladies night, taking place on Wednesdays for a limited time. Along with its signature "Diva" music playlist of female artists and interactive Web page, ladies will be able to taste five "Sex and the City"-inspired SKYY Vodka martinis — Tutu Mango (the Carrie), Tartlet (the Miranda), Peach Yorkie (the Charlotte), X-Boyfriend (the Samantha) and the Mr. Big Shot.

Houlihan's will also be serving a brand-new dish — almond-encrusted brie with walnut raisin crisps, grapes and fig balsamic glaze. For more information, visit houlihans.com.